PRICE, THREE CENTS

METHODIST BAZAAR IS THIS SATURDAY

Annual Event Offering
Christmas Gifts to be Cl-maxed by Supper.

EXPECT LARGE NUMBER

The annual Christmas Bazaar of the Methodist Episcopal Church will take place this year on Saturday at Elm Hall. Beginning at 10 A. M. it will continue all day, culminating in a widely heralded chicken dinner at 6.30.

Numerous booths provide opportunity to do Christmas shopping early and judging from an excellent assortment of articles and gifts, it may be very profitably done at the Bazaar.

Among the things which will be available for the Christmas shoppers are lingerie, luncheon sets, towels, dressed dolls, aprons, large and small, cakes, baked goods, candy, blankets and handkerchiefs.

A gathering of 300 is planned for at the supper which will tax the capacities of Elm Hall to the utmost. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Clarence Smith, 310 Essex avenue, or with Mrs. C. H. Reger, 842 Montgomery avenue.

The press agent of the bazaar offers the following bit of verse about the supper:

"Home cooked chicken and taters, of course
Yellow, creamy slaw, you'll surely endorse,
Where's your knife—here come the peas,
Oh, Boy! Cranberry sauce—your palate to tease!
Next come the coffee—and rools good and hot,
Look to your belt and let it out a dot.
Hang on to the finish, for your own sweet sake
For 'Finales' bringing ice cream and delicious, flaky cake!"

Scout Backers Hold

Annual Meeting on 5th

The dual backers of the Narberth Boy Scout Troop, the Fathers Association and the troop committee will be reconstituted at the annual meeting of those bodies on Wednesday, December 5, at 8 P. M. at the Scout House. All fathers, whether their boys are scouts now or not, should attend this meeting which is of the utmost importance to the future of the local troop.

New officers will be elected for the Fathers' Association and new members will be added to the troop committee, some of whose members are retiring due to lack of time to give to the Boy Scout movement. Inasmuch as the annual meeting is the only chance to get all the men together who are in any way interested in the Scouts it is hoped that a goodly crowd of male parents will put in an appearance.

As constituted at present the troop committee consists of the following men: W. Russell Green, chairman; E. T. Wolf, secretary; John A. Snyder, George Schroder, Ted Meredith, Harvey Harmon, Allan Schubert, Robert C. Collins and H. V. Whitney. The officers of the Fathers' Association for the past year are: President, Edwin P. Dold; vice president, Walton M. Wentz; secretary and treasurer, E. T. Wolf.

L. M. Junior High Holds Honor Day

Lower Merion Junior High School held its first Honor Day of the school year Wednesday morning, November 21, for the purpose of honoring those students who, for the first quarter of the year, have received a general average of 90 per cent. with no mark below 80 per cent. Everett E. Burlingame was the speaker of the day. Cheers were given for "Honors" and 22 students received chevrons and certificates of scholastic ability.

The following names were placed upon the school's scholastic Honor Roll for the first quarter:

Wintry Blasts Felt

With the thermometer hovering around freezing, Jack Frost would seem to be making serious inroads upon the balmy weather recently enjoyed along the Main Line. The close of last week, as reported by Charles A. Decker, Main Line co-operative weather observer, of Narberth, showed the mercury 10 degrees below freezing, 20, the lowest temperature reported this winter. The week was marked by a steady decline in the temperature from last Tuesday with 51 and 39 as the high-low figures to 34 and 20 on Monday of this week. The highest wind recorded for the week was on Sunday with a velocity of 29 miles per hour from the North-west. Temperatures varied from six degrees above the normal to seven degrees below. The high-low figures for the week of November 20 to 26 follow: Tuesday, 54 and 39; Wednesday, 44 and 33; Thursday, 49 and 35; Friday, 43 and 32; Saturday, 44 and 31; Sunday, 42 and 29; Monday, 34 and 20. Considerable flurries of snow were seen Sunday night.

Uphold Local Honor

Ardmore is the home of mighty pinocle players. So claimed Earl Dolan, of that metropolis, who offered to take on all comers in the time-honored game with William Newborg as a partner in the card room of the Narberth Fire Company. Charles Funk and Andy Gallagher accepted their challenge only to be ignominiously defeated. Challengers Charles Smith and Sam Strauss likewise tasted the bitter sting of defeat. Then when Messrs. Dolan and Newborg were about to publish abroad how they met and defeated the best pinocle players Narberth Borough could produce, along came the redoubtable pair, George B. Suplee and Joseph Barker, who proceeded to administer a lesson in the art of pinocle playing to the vaunted team of Dolan and Newborg, defeating them four to three. Mr. Dolan returned to Ardmore, it is said, with considerably more respect for the ability of the local pinocle players.

Thanksgiving Festivities Prominent as Winter Social Season Commences

Main Line people have traditional amusements on Thanksgiving day. One is the horse show at the Radnor Hunt Club and the other is the Penn-Cornell game. This year was no exception and the enthusiasts of both sports were out en masse. Unfortunately, there are a great many colleges which do not consider Thanksgiving week-end as a prolonged vacation period, so there wasn't the incoming rush of heavily laden students that will be a familiar sight within the next two or three weeks when Christmas holidays start. However, it does not necessarily mean that because there are no college students there are no dances or parties.

The Thanksgiving dance of the Phi Tau Delta sorority at the Cynwyd Club Wednesday evening was a gala affair, with over 100 guests present. Tomorrow evening members and guests of the Alpha Gamma Chi sorority will dance at the Cynwyd Tennis Club. This popular sorority has had many successful dances in the past so this one no doubt will be attended by a large majority of the younger set. Miss Betty Cook, of Windsor avenue, president of the local chapter, is chairman ("nuff said!").

The boys come into the limelight next Friday when the Sigma Kappa, one of the biggest fraternities in this vicinity, holds its annual fall dance at the Merion Tribute House. So November goes out and December comes in, not with a blare of bugles, but with lots of dances.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bedford, of Woodhaven, N. Y., stopped over for a Thanksgiving visit with Mrs. Bedford's sister, Mrs. James B. Smith, of 110 Avon road, while en route to the South.

Mrs. John H. Parker, of Norris-town, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence H. Woolmington, of 23 Narbrook Park, for a few days this week.

Mrs. J. E. Slaughter, of the Baird apartments, is spending a few days in Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, of Essex avenue, spent several days in Harrisburg this week while Mr. Mueller attended to business. Master John Russ Fulton and Master Shaffer Holmes Fulton remained in the city.

Soloist With Orchestra

When the Main Line Orchestra, Adolph Vogel, conductor, opens its seventh season with a concert on Wednesday evening, December 5, at 8.15, in the auditorium of the Junior High School, Ardmore, George Wargo, violin concerto with the orchestra, will be the soloist, playing the Mendelssohn.

Mr. Wargo was born in Hazleton, Pa., on July 11, 1911, and came to Philadelphia five years ago. He studied in the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music under Wolfgang Richter, the late Van den Beemt and Boris Koutzen. He graduated from the Conservatory, and is now a member of the master class, under the direction of Boris Koutzen.

Run by Owner

The erstwhile Narberth Garage, now known as the Narberth Bridge Garage, is being operated by its owner, Chester P. Cook, E. H. Wipf, the former proprietor, remains in charge of all repair work done by the garage.

Auxiliary to Gather

The Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will meet on Thursday, December 6, from 10 till 4 o'clock.

Hetherington-Thomson.

Clarke Thompson, Bryn Mawr, son of a former president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and a World War aviator, and Mrs. Sarah P. Hetherington, Philadelphia, were married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Judge J. Willis Martin's home in Chestnut Hill. Only a few relatives and intimate friends attended the ceremony, which was performed by Judge Martin. Immediately after, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson left for Green Briar, White Sulphur Springs.

Plan Benefit Party

A card party will be staged by the Legion Auxiliary on Friday, December 7, in the Legion Room of the Community Building for the benefit of the Christmas welfare work among the soldiers. Prizes will be awarded at each table. Admission 50 cents. The 8 and 40 of the Auxiliary are to entertain the Montgomery County Salon in the Legion Room on Monday, December 10.

Residents Injured

Henry W. Doughton, of 120 Merion avenue, and his daughter, Margaret, 5, were injured on Sunday when a car crashed into his machine at Tenth and Pine streets. Both were cut and bruised. Napoleon Lemar, of Cypress street near Sixth, driver of the other car, was arrested.

Main Line Banks Spread Christmas Cheer With $650,000 Ready to Mail Depositors

Approximately $650,000 will be distributed next week by the Christmas clubs of Main Line banks from Bala-Cynwyd to Wayne. When the totals from the Paoli and Malvern banks are added to this amount the grand total is expected to exceed $750,000.

Ardmore leads the list with over $315,000 to be paid to 5500 depositors. This is an approximate average of $57.27 to each club member. Bryn Mawr, having two banks, has a total of $185,000, which is an average of about $53.50 to each depositor.

Wayne, also reporting from two banks, has almost $100,000 to give out as Christmas plums. This makes an average of a little over $50 to

CLUBWOMEN HEAR MUSICAL PROGRAM

Lyric Tenor and Pianist
Charm Large Gathering in Elm Hall.

KEIGHTON IS SPEAKER

A Thanksgiving feast for mind and spirit was given the members and friends attending the Women's Community Club concert on Tuesday afternoon at Elm Hall.

The Rev. Robert E. Keighton, of the Baptist Church, in his short address of welcome spoke of Thanksgiving and urged his hearers to think of all the things that lie behind all this Thanksgiving, of the pilgrims who put the thought of character before the thought of money or gain in their coming to this land and today, after 300 years, the glorious advance there has been and will be if every one puts more of himself into his daily life.

Frederick Hufsmith, the finest opera and concert singer that the club has ever offered was heard in a program that brought out to the full the clear and beautiful tones of his lyric tenor voice. His numbers were many and varied, including a tenor solo from Martha, "Where, Ere You Walk," by Handel; "The Old Refrain," by Kreisler, and lovely numbers in English: "At Night," by Rachmaninoff, and "Thanks Be to God," by Dickson. His technique and excellent control, enunciation and wonderful expression filled his audience with enthusiasm.

Miss Dolly Stewart, who accompanied Mr. Hufsmith, is herself a composer and soloist. She is a beautiful Australian and combined a charming personality with a rare gift in pianoforte. Her own compositions, "April Fool" and "Lisp-Lover," "The Loyalty of Men" and "Shopping" were clever and humorous.

On Tuesday, December 4, the executive board of the Women's Community Club will give an afternoon bridge and tea for the benefit of the club rent fund. There will be prizes at every table and refreshments.

Firemen Get Workout

A fire in the dump of the Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo at Overbrook Tuesday afternoon was the cause of a four-hour workout on the part of the Narberth Fire Company or from 5 till 9 P. M. The dump fire, located at Bowman avenue and Wynnewood road, was not particularly exciting but required a play of water on it for some time, necessitating the use of a couple of hundred feet of hose. The firemen were refreshed by food served amounting to almost a meal on the Seminary grounds and likewise through the generosity of F. W. Brill, of Merion, who provided sandwiches and coffee for the men.

W. F. M. S. Meets

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, December 3, at 2.30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Minnie Mapes, 508 Dudley avenue. Mrs. Steck, formerly a missionary to Africa, will speak on the home life of the aborigines. Members are urged to be present and bring their Christmas offering.

Clarence Scott Chosen L. M. Football Captain

Clarence Scott, of Jefferson street, West Manayunk, unanimously was elected captain of next year's Lower Merion football team at a special meeting of the lettermen and coaches last Monday morning at the Senior High School. Clarence is 17 years old, and has been a member of the team for three years. He is the only boy in the history of the Junior High School who was considered good enough to go out for the team while in the ninth grade. He made the Senior High squad that year and has been one of the most dependable men Coach Adam has had in the past two years. "Perk," as the boys call him, is considered the greatest defensive man for backing up the line that has been at Lower Merion for many, many years. Scott is a quiet leader whom the boys admire, and should make a good captain. He is the first boy ever to represent West Manayunk as the captain of a Lower Merion High School football team.

VILLANOVA CLOSES SEASON UNBEATEN

riously With 20 to 13
Win.

DEFEAT DAVIS-ELKINS

Undefeated!
Such is the boast of the Villanova football team. Students and alumni, friends and well-wishers of the team are taking off their hats to Coach Harry Stuhldreher and every man that worked on the hot days, suffered on the cold days and took his beating so that Villanova might become a bright light in the football firmament.

Last Saturday morning the Main Line boys were just another football team. True, they had defeated Grove City and Bucknell, and tied with the eleven from Temple. Perhaps luck was with them. Then the big game arrived. When the Davis-Elkins eleven, conquerors of Navy, entered the conflict many hoped for but did not expect a victory by the Wildcats. Little did these reckon with the fighting spirit that has featured all Villanova games this year.

More than 18,000 rabid, howling, fight-frenzied football fans braved the chill blasts that swept out of the north last Saturday afternoon to watch their pets perform. Hardly had the game been entered on the books when the Redcoats from the West Virginia mountains swept around the Main Liner's left end for the initial score of the game.

Neil Rengle, the visitor's full-back, carried the ball for this score, but failed in the attempt for the extra point. Stuhldreher rushed his first team backfield into the game. Morgan and his Raiders decided there was work to do—and commenced to do it. Melanson received a long pass from Morgan, and Villanova had a six-pointer to match that of the visitors.

Gave School Tea

The hospitality committee of the Mothers' Council, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Griswold, gave a tea on Tuesday at the school to mothers of children attending the second, third and fourth grades. Miss Miller, Miss Hoak, Miss Wilkie, Miss McLaughlin, and Miss Bishop were the teachers assisting. Miss Eckfeldt was unable to be there.

There were about 50 mothers present. Tea and cakes were served by the teachers and grade mothers. It was a most enjoyable occasion. Other teas will follow during the year so that the mothers may become acquainted with each other as well as with the teachers.

King's Daughters

The regular meeting of the King's Daughters will be held on Wednesday, December 5 at 10.30 at the Community Building.

The twenty-ninth annual game between Lower Merion and Radnor High Schools ended in a scoreless tie last Saturday afternoon on the high school field at Wayne. The result was the same as that of the game played a year ago.

The game was fiercely played throughout the four 15-minute quarters, and the ball much of the time was moving back and forth in the center portion of the field. Neither side was able to gain ground to any extent early in the game, and it was not until later in the second quarter that Lower Merion began to mass its attack and march down the field. Taking the ball on their 40-yard line, the maroon and white, with Ernie Mandes and E. Peters alternating, took the ball on off-tackle plays to Radnor's 15-yard line where the half time whistle ended the play.

After receiving the Radnor kick off, running it back to the 30-yard line, Peters and E. Mandes again started their telling work in the second half. First down after first down was ripped off until the ball stood on Radnor's five-yard line. Here, Ernie Mandes tried a forward pass which was grounded over the goal line, and Lower Merion lost a favorable opportunity to win the game.

After Fox had kicked off of danger, the fourth quarter began, and a repetition of the two former marches was begun by the stalwarts from Ardmore. This last surge down the field ended disastrously for Lower Merion's hopes when Charlie Ross tossed a pass back to the center of the field when he got the signals mixed and one of the Radnor linesmen recovered the oval.

It was the final march of the Lower Merion eleven, for, with only five minutes to go, Radnor

Missionary to Speak At Lutheran Church

Dr. Amy Rohrer Neudoerffer, recently returned missionary from India, will be the speaker at the Missionary Thank Offering Service on Sunday evening at 7.45 at the Lutheran Church to which the public is invited. She will speak on "New Life in Old India." Dr. Neudoerffer (nee Rohrer) went to India as a medical missionary for the Lutheran Church in 1907 after graduation by the Woman's Medical College of Philadelphia. After the preliminary task of learning the language she was put in charge of the Rajahmundry Mission Hospital for women and children. Some very interesting things could be told concerning these years while in charge of this hospital.

In 1914 Dr. Rohrer and Missionary Neudoerffer were united in marriage. Beside the task of making the new home an attractive place for Christian influence she found time to carry on dispensary at the hospital and to conduct a Bible School for illiterate women.

The first furlough of the Neudoerffers was in 1919. The second is the present one. Rev. and Mrs. Neudoerffer and their son, Frederick, born in India, are residing at 207 Elm Terrace.

Twenty Football Players Awarded 1928 Letters

Twenty boys were awarded football letters at the Tuesday morning assembly at the Lower Merion High School. Announcement was made of the election of Clarence Scott as next year's captain, and Standish Marsh as the manager, with R. E. Cogswell and Noel Thompson as assistant managers. The lettermen are: Captain Robert Elmore, Ernest Mandes, Alfred Mandes, Franklin Kohlhas, Edward Peters, Robert McLaughlin, Jack Everhart, Edward Cave, Warren Lockwood, Alfred D'Amora, Charles Roache, Arthur McGee, Robert Cunningham, Howard Dolan, Keith Parks, Salvatore Spinelli, Henderson Beatty, Captain-elect Clarence Scott, Charles Faulk and Charlie Ross. W. Russ received his letter as manager.

Main Line Motor Dealers Will Display 100 New Autos at Bryn Mawr, Dec. 6, 7, 8

The second annual Main Line Automobile Show, sponsored by the Main Line Automobile Trade Association, is expected to surpass the affair of last year by a wide margin if the plans formulated by the show committee are carried through to a successful conclusion, and there is not a doubt in the world that they will. The show will be held in the Royal Building, Lancaster and Maple avenues, Bryn Mawr, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 6, 7 and 8, both afternoon and evening.

The first show of the association held in the same building last year attracted more than 10,000 visitors, despite adverse weather conditions.

More individual makes of automobiles will be on display this year, and it is expected, when the doors are thrown open to the public on Thursday afternoon, that at least 100 cars will be attractively placed about the spacious interior of the building against 80 for last year.

According to information on hand it is expected the new six-cylinder Chevrolet will be shown, although the special showing of the new models at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City, on November 24-29, and the showing in Washington early in December are the only exhibits sanctioned by the Chevrolet Company. The show committee is working overtime and expects to get special permission to display the new car in the Main Line show.

No expense or labor is being spared to make this year's show the greatest affair of its kind ever held along the Main Line, and without exaggerating in the least, it can be truthfully said that with the exception of the Philadelphia show, the Main Line affair will be the largest in the Philadelphia suburban area and will be the first automobile show in this section of the country to have a complete line of 1929 automobiles upon display.

Accessories Show Feature.
In the accessory division of the show there will be more than double the number of exhibitors of last year, as additional space has been arranged to take care of the many Main Line accessory dealers who were unable to procure space last year.

Nothing has been overlooked by the show committee. There will be ample parking space for several thousand cars, and the lot in front of the main entrance to the building is being filled with cinders to prevent the cars from becoming mired in case of inclement weather. Inside the building itself rest rooms for ladies and a smoking room for the gentlemen have been provided. The purpose of holding an automobile show on the Main Line is to educate the buyers of motor cars in this section to patronize the dealers in their home community, and to allow them to become better acquainted with each other.

Announce Bridge Benefit

Alumnae of the Caskin School at Devon will give their annual bridge party for the benefit of the Building Fund at 8.15 P. M., January 16, at Greenhill Farms, Overbrook.

Elected Nurseries Head

Mrs. W. Logan MacCoy, of Overbrook, was elected president of the Philadelphia Day Nurseries at the annual meeting last week in the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia. Mrs. George B. Evans, Rosemont, was chosen second vice president of the organization.

What It's All About

Barely three weeks remain before the spick and span new Ford coupe with a special paint job will become the property of some Narberth resident or of the surrounding trade district. Announcement of the winner of this and the other handsome prizes will be made on December 26th from the various store windows and from the Narberth Theater. It will also be announced in Our Town for December 28th, 1928.

The purpose of this prize award campaign sponsored by the Narberth Board of Trade is simply to stimulate buying from local independent merchants by the people of the Borough and its vicinity. The local businessmen feel that they are entitled to the patronage of the residents of the Borough. And in seeking this patronage the merchants feel that they are giving as good as they receive; in short, that people may "buy at home" with both profit and pleasure to themselves.

The proposition is strictly a business one. Once local residents are introduced, as it were, to their home business men, the latter feel that there is every reason to believe they will continue to receive the business of these people.

There is no better time to get acquainted with the Narberth merchants than at present when one may share in the prize award campaign and perhaps carry off one of the splendid prizes. It is never too late to begin. Coupons are given out with every 25c purchase. Ask for them if your merchant should forget them in the rush of this busy season.

New $175,000 Substation Will Furnish Current for 7 Main Line Communities

With an installed capacity considerably in excess of present requirements and provisions for the future, based on estimated growth, the new $175,000 Ardmore substation of the Philadelphia Suburban-Coun- ties Gas and Electric Company has been completed and energized, according to an announcement by H. R. Sterrett, regional vice president, at the Ardmore office of the company's Main Line division.

The new substation will provide electric current to the communities of Ardmore, Wynnewood, Haverford, Bryn Mawr, Rosemont, Gladwyne, Ithan and contiguous areas or a combined territory of approximately 30 square miles. It is located at Holland avenue and County Line road, on a two-acre parcel acquired some time ago from Haverford College.

There are at present two 33,000-1 volt lines feeding the substation, these being tied in with main line feeders connecting the Barbadoes substation, near Norristown, with the Llanerch substation. Inasmuch as the Barbadoes plant receives its energy in the main from Plymouth Meeting substation, which is directly connected with Conowingo, it becomes apparent that local users of electricity are now utilizing current from the giant hydro-electric development on the Susquehanna River.

There is also in contemplation a new and entirely independent 33,000 volt line from Chester, which will further reinforce the supply at the Ardmore point of distribution.

The present capacity of the old Ardmore substation is 3000-Kva. There has already been installed two 5000-Kva. transformer banks in the new substation, while provisions have been made for ultimately doubling that capacity. Although the old substation is still in use, to a limited extent, it is anticipated that its entire load will be transferred to the new plant in the course of the next four or five months. Elimination of the old plant and extra space made available for building purposes at the site of the new substation will provide the company with considerable land for expansion of its operating departments.

Building of the new operation was begun in May last, the contract being in charge of the United Engineers and Constructors, Inc. The building is of brick construction with limestone trim.

Provisions are being made to beautify the location in general by the planting of lawns and shrubbery.

magazine, called The Main Limer, and the booksellers in that group of suburbs have combined to give support to a good monthly book page. The October issue of the magazine stresses the place bookstores play in the community affairs and carries a full page devoted to reviews, including reviews of one book by and one about A. Edward Newton, who lives in the district. It also carries an introductory editorial pointing out the coming of Children's Book Week and the co-operative method the bookstores were taking to do their part in its observance. Advertisements on the book page were carried by six stores, which co-operate in the campaign."

Dramatic League Formed

A canvass to obtain as many Main Line residents as possible as supporting members of the Main Line Dramatic League, recently formed by members of the junior church of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, has been suggested by the Rev. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, rector of the church. All the Main Line young people possessing dramatic ability are eligible as active members. Staats Colsworth, of St. Davids, is president.

Miss Evelyn Crady, of Louisville, Ky., and Miss Margaret Gutelius visited their aunt, Mrs. Edwin C. Town, over last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Martin, of 219 Forest avenue, had as their guests last week Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Martin and their son, Mr. Bruce Martin, all of Elkins, W. Va. Mr. Martin is State Senator-elect for West Virginia. Mr. Bruce Martin, who attended the Villanova-Davis-Elkins game last Saturday, is remaining as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Martin this week.

THE RADNOR HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL SQUAD

George B. Suplee, Jr., home from State College, is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Broadhead Suplee, of 315 Woodbine avenue.

Miss Naomi Robbins, of Woodbury, N. J., formerly of Narberth, was the guest of Miss Louise England, of Essex avenue, on Monday night.

Narberth Girls Win Honors

Miss Ruth Lee Cook, daughter of Mrs. Aubrey Cook, of 122 Windsor avenue, was elected captain of the hockey team at Lower Merion for next year, and Miss Alice Louise Maguire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Maguire, of 300 Grayling avenue, was the almost unanimous choice for hockey manager. This marks the third consecutive year that a Narberth girl has led the team. Elma Reese, of Hampden avenue, was captain last year; Eleanor Michaelson, this year's retiring captain, and Ruth Lee. Anna Sell, of Conway avenue, led her teammates in basketball in 1926, and Cynthia Metzger, Gilpin road, and Betty Cook, sister of Ruth Lee, captained basketball in 1927 and 1928 respectively.

Real Estate

William H. Wilson and Company have sold to Charles J. Swain the detached stone and plastered English style residence situated on the north side of Golf View road, opposite Huntingdon lane, "Merion Golf Manor," for $40,000. The property adjoins the homes recently purchased by Mr. Erskine White and Morris Williams. It contains 16 rooms and 4 baths together with a garage for two cars.

In Wynnewood, a large stone residence in the English style of architecture, with tile roof and two car garage, on the northerly side of Morris avenue, 290 feet west of Warwick road, has been bought by Joseph L. Wilson from Albert F. Lagit and Henry D. Dagit, Jr., through Charles J. Hood and Company. The lot is approximately one-half acre and the property including improvements will cost $42,500.

Florence R. Hall has purchased from Hampton L. Carson, through A. D. Warnock, a home on 635 Winsford road, Bryn Mawr. The property was held for sale at $35,000.

Flanigen and Flanigen have sold to Simes S. Richards an English type house and about one-half acre of ground, situated at the corner of Sproul road and Spring Mill road, Villanova. It was part of the Willow Burn Tract which Flanigen and Flanigen recently purchased from the Chew estate and are now developing. The property was held at $26,000 and the sale was negotiated by A. D. Warnock.

Another property sold by A. D. Warnock on the Willow Burn tract was a frame Colonial house with about an acre of ground, on Spring Mill road, Villanova. The owners, Flanigen and Flanigen, sold the property to J. Marshall Crossman for about $27,000.

J. Howard has sold to Robert J. Vernier through Charles L. Lagen one and one-half acres of ground on Pugh road, just west of County line road, in the Colonial Village north of Wayne. The price paid was $6750. An early Pennsylvania farmhouse type residence will be built by the purchaser.

Haverford Loses First Swarthmore Soccer Tilt

Haverford College suffered its first soccer setback by Swarthmore last Friday when it lost the game played on the home field 1 to 0. The victory placed the undefeated Swarthmore booters in a tie with Yale for first place in the Intercollegiate League.

The winning goal was made in the first period when an alert Swarthmore lineman returned a high loop back into scrimmage during the period. After striking Haverford's fullback, Shirk, it bounced to the side and was fired into the net by Bringham, Garnet inside right, safely out of reach of the Main Line goalkeeper.

Bill Frazer, along with Captain Jimmy Maier, of Haverford, played one of the best games of his career. The plucky little right halfback was in every play in his territory and never once hesitated to keep up his losing fight. Blair, Main Line fullback, pounded through close plays time and again to drive the ball far out of scoring distance.

Many "Transfers" Enter Penn State.

The standing of the Pennsylvania State College as a high ranking educational institution is further attested in a report just issued by the college examiner which states that 145 students from other colleges and universities entered the State College this fall with advanced standing. While most of these students came from other colleges in Pennsylvania there were some from such widely scattered institutions as the University of Illinois, New York University, Ohio State, Columbia University, San Diego State Teachers' College, University of Vermont, Mechanico-Elector Technical School of Sofia, and the University of Porto Rico.

Postmaster Urges Early Schedule for Mailing for Main Line.

CLERKS TO BE ADDED

Early shopping and early mailing were urged today by John R. Baltz, Ardmore postmaster, in announcing the schedules for last mailings to various points in the United States in order for Christmas gifts to arrive in time for the holiday. Mailing parcels slightly in advance of the dates will also expedite deliveries.

Next in importance to early mailing is the proper wrapping and addressing of all parcel post matter. Postmaster Baltz pointed out.

Employment of additional clerks to take care of the large amount of incoming and outgoing mail will be made at all the Main Line postoffices during the last few days of the holiday season.

The schedule of the latest dates to mail as prepared by the post-office follows:

For California and the Far West, Thursday, December 13.
For Rocky Mountain States, Friday, December 14.
For other States of Middle West, Saturday, December 15.
For Southern States, Saturday, December 15.
For Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky, Saturday, December 15.
For New England States, Monday, December 17.
For Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Tuesday, December 18.
For New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Tuesday, December 18.
For Main Line (parcel post), Wednesday, December 19.
For Main Line (Christmas cards and letters), Thursday, December 20.

COAL

1858 was the year in which the first ton of Jeddo-Highland Coal was mined. At that time this coal was justly considered the highest quality anthracite on account of its high heat-giving value, low ash content and careful preparation.

TODAY seventy years later, Jeddo-Highland Coal is being mined from the same seams in the same compact property—the original high quality is unchanged—and the most exacting standard of preparation is strictly adhered to.

Flowers of spring for the home in winter. Selecting a number of varieties not commonly grown in the house we have started the bulbs in attractive but low-priced containers. Yours may be the pleasure of watching them flourish into beautiful blossom in a few weeks.

For the Friend who "has everything" why not have us deliver for Christmas a beautiful growing plant in an artistic imported artware container that will serve as a permanent remembrance?

We have for your choice a variety of suggestions for the unusual gift.

Do You Always Remember to send flowers in advance to your dinner hostess? Sometimes they are sent on the following day. But the rule, preferably, is to have your floral appreciation of hospitality reach your hostess shortly before your arrival.

For this purpose we feature exclusive cut flower arrangements—fresh, beautiful long-lasting—and inexpensive.

Our Suburban Service

affords many advantages over that of even the largest city establishments. Prices generally lower, even without the extra city charge for suburban delivery.

Your orders, obviously, may be more promptly delivered and without the damage frequently suffered in longer transportation.

Short notice orders, undeliverable from the city . . . distinctive floral arrangements from the artistically simple to the most elaborate effects . . . an ever changing flower and plant exhibit for your inspection at all times.

INTERCEPTED PASS BEATS HAVERFORD

Delaware End Snares Ball, Runs 90 Yards for Touchdown.

THRILLER ENDS 19 TO 7

Haverford College continued its losing streak last week by going down before the mediocre Delaware University team, 19 to 7. In spite of the slump in Haverford's season, which started so well, the defeat in the final game was a surprise. Critics aver that it was the most thrilling game ever witnessed at Delaware.

Delaware outplayed the Main Line team for the first half and ended it by a score of 12-0. In the third quarter there seemed to be hope that Haverford would repeat its unusual performance against Amherst and stage a second-half rally. Pshing forward into Delaware territory, Tripp finally carried the ball over the line and made good his drop-kick to make the score 12-7. Haverford rooters went wild; hats were thrown in the air. The slump seemed over.

In the fourth quarter Haverford again had Delaware on the run. Down they went to the Delaware 4-yard line. Another touchdown seemed assured. The Main Liners tried a pass; Captain Gawthrop carefully timed his toss to Collison; the pass soared smoothly along, but the long arm of Hill, Delaware end, reached up, gathered in the pass and the man ran 90 yards for a touchdown. A forward pass gave Delaware the extra point.

Haverford is offering no alibi. Some of their best men were injured. They had breaks in luck. The season has ended with four games won, four lost, a fairly even break.

The lineup last Saturday was:
Delaware Haverford
Statts center Gawthrop
Reese right guard Wriggins
Kane right tackle Sean
Hill right end Wilt
Reese quarterback Fox
Hopkins right halfback Speck
Taylor fullback E. F. Hohenauer
Delaware 6 6 0 7—19
Haverford 0 0 7 0—7
Touchdowns—Taylor, 2; Hill, Tripp.

Students and their friends nearly filled to capacity the gymnasium hall at Rosemont College last Friday evening on the occasion of the annual Senior Ball. Many of the Main Line's most prominent families were represented on the list of patrons and patronesses of the delightful event.

GLARING LIGHTS RUINOUS TO SIGHT

Sudden Flood of Brilliant Light Causes Disturbance to Delicate Retina.

Glaring headlights have a decidedly serious effect on the eyes, according to the Keystone Automobile Club, which sought an expression on the subject from the world-famous Wills Eye Hospital, in Philadelphia. Dr. I. S. Tassman, head of the refraction department, was appointed by the hospital authorities to co-operate with the club in its efforts to bring about safer driving, and he has covered the subject of eye strain as seen by a specialist.

"In confronting a very brilliant illumination," said Doctor Tassman, "there takes place in the eye first a simultaneous contraction or narrowing of the pupil. When very excessive or oft repeated in the presence of intense light, this may result in ocular fatigue, pain or even an inflammatory condition of the eye more or less constant, because of the strain on the delicate self adjusting mechanism from being called off to function in the presence of severe contrasts to which it must adapt itself.

"The sudden flood of brilliant light also causes a marked disturbance in the very sensitive Retina or inner coat of the eye where the image is cast. The light being here diffused in excessive amount, produces a sensation of dazzling. This dazzling is abnormal and indicates a disturbance of the visual substances. Sudden withdrawal from the light again produces a sharp contrast, which is immediately followed by a brief blind period familiar to all. A blind area occurs in the vision, the duration of which depends on the period of exposure and the intensity of the light, and it represents an area in the retina of the eye which has been rendered undependent. The result is practically the same as that which occurs in the eye after looking at an eclipse of the sun without smoked glasses. I severe cases it may lead to what is known as Retinitis, which is characterized by permanent structural changes in the inner or visual lining of the eye and will be accompanied by a corresponding amount of visual impairment."

Third Place in League

Haverford School won third place in the Interacademic Soccer League last Friday when it defeated Friends' Central, 2 to 1, at Haverford. Keator and Vosburg made Haverford's goals, while the loser gained their counter when Maxfield, Haverford back, unfortunately booted the ball into his own net. Other league results included a 4 to 0 victory for Episcopal Academy over Germantown Academy at City Line and Berwick road.

Penn Charter won the interacademic title by defeating Germantown Friends, 1-0. Penn Charter will play Northeast High, of Philadelphia, for the Haverford Cup and the city championship.

SEEKS APARTMENT HOUSE FOR MERION

Zone Change from "A" to "C" Is Aim of C. W. B. Townsend.

PLEA IRKS NEIGHBORS

A change of zoning classification is sought in Merion, and already citizens of that highly restricted residential area are up in arms about it. Several of them appeared at the November meeting of the Lower Merion Township Commission held in Ardmore Wednesday night, and announced their intentions of opposing the change at a public hearing, which was set by the commissioners for 8 P. M., Wednesday, December 19.

Caspar W. B. Townsend, son of the late Joseph Barton Townsend, presented a petition for zoning change from "A" to "C" classification, affecting 3,624 acres owned by him on the west side of City Line between Merion and Blacoyd roads, near the Overbrook station. He seeks thereon to erect an apartment house.

Most of Merion is zoned "A"—single family detached dwellings, whose area is not to exceed 20 per cent. of the lot area, with front lawn of 40 feet depth, rear of 25 feet and side space aggregating 30 feet in width, with not less than 10 feet on each side. It is believed that the J. B. Townsend estate was restricted to correspond approximately with this classification before Mr. Townsend died.

The "C" classification sought by C. W. B. Townsend & Son, would permit, among other things, of a multiple dwelling or apartment house; two-family detached dwellings and single family detached dwellings with 30-foot front yard depth, 25-foot yard and an aggregate side yard width on both sides of 20 feet, with not less than eight feet each side and occupying as much as 30 per cent. of lot area.

Mr. Townsend's plea, if granted, would extend "C" zone now in force from Lancaster road north to Merion road, on to include the area between Merion and Blacoyd roads, west of City Line. His reasons as presented Wednesday night include the following:

The area involved is bounded on two sides by public highways (City Line and Merion road); it is near the Overbrook station of the Pennsylvania Railroad; on account of traffic, it is primarily unsuitable for exclusive residences, but is advantageously situated as an apartment house site; it is across City Line from a service station, is near other apartment houses such as Green Hill Farms, York Lynne apartments at Berwick road and City Line, and a new apartment house now being erected immediately across City Line; and if zoned "C" would still constitute an attractive residential district, free from objectionable features.

Against the proposed change nearby Merion residents are rising embattled, and it is expected pyrotechnics will abound at the December 19 commission meeting, when a public hearing will be accorded both sides.

Order Traces Origin to 1215 Magna Charta

Never was interest so keen as now in the various societies composed of descendants of those who had a part in the founding of the nation. In every historical library men and women are searching through the records of the past to prove that an ancestor fought in the Revolution or the War of 1812 or gave service in some other distinguished capacity when America was young.

Montgomery county has several flourishing chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution, while many residents are members of such organizations as the Sons of the Revolution, the Colonial Dames, the Pennsylvania German Society, the Huguenot Society and the Descendants of the Schwenkfeldian Exiles.

Insofar as the remoteness of the ancestry involved might be said to lend dignity, all these societies seem youthful when compared with the Baronial Order of Runnemede, which is composed of descendants of the English barons who won the great charter of rights, known as Magna Charta, from King John at Runnemede, in the year 1215. This order, whose only organization has its headquarters in Philadelphia, also has some Montgomery county members.

Active membership is limited to 100 who must be lineal male descendants of the 25 barons who confronted King John in 1215. They constitute the "barons" of the Order. There is a second group composed of "knights." As vacancies occur among the "barons" the "knights" may be advanced. Each "baron" may nominate his successor, who thereupon becomes a "knight."

The officers are called marshal, justiciar, chancellor, keeper of the nurse, keeper of the signet, keeper of the rolls, genealogist and herald.

The order meets yearly about June 15 to commemorate the anniversary of the granting of Magna Charta. Such meetings have been held since 1898, when the order came into existence in Philadelphia.

Lower Merion members of the order include the following "barons"—Henry H. Collins, Jr., and William MacPherson Hornor, Bryn Mawr, and Dr. Warren Walker, Ardmore. Messrs. Collins and Walker have named sons as "knights."

BUSINESS LEADERS URGE ADVERTISING

Chamber of Commerce Holds Publicity Plan Under Consideration.

WILL AID RED CROSS

Handicapped by most of its members attending the Bryn Mawr bowling tournament and various bridge parties, the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce was forced to hold over some of the business at its meeting Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A., until next month. Harry C. Bare presided with A. L. Reinhold, as secretary.

Joseph Balaity moved that the annual Christmas allowance and the matter of the Red Cross subscription be referred to the Chamber's Board of Directors to use their discretion as to the amount to be appropriated. Another mention made by Mr. Balaity and passed by the Chamber was one to send William McIntyre a letter of condolence on the death of his father, the late William J. McIntyre.

Another advertising proposition was put before the meeting by a Philadelphia advertising house and the business men were given examples of what other towns are doing about publicity. Mr. Bare said the whole object of the campaign would be to advertise Ardmore to the rest of the world and to make those who live here aware that Ardmore exists and that it's merchants can serve the community better than the merchants in other towns.

Hobby Fair and Poster Contest Planned by Boy Council—Carlson Rechosen Leader

Edward A. Carlson was re-elected president of the Main Line Boy Council last Thursday evening when the Council held its annual election. Henry L. Reinhold, Jr., was also re-elected first vice president; Harry C. Bare, second vice president; Joseph A. Kaldenbacher, treasurer, and H. A. Buehler, secretary.

Plans were made for the coming "Boy Week," early in May, and as some things need time for the development active work will begin at once. C. B. Pennypacker, principal of the Lower Merion Senior High School, who is chairman of the educational committee, is making arrangements for an exhibition of hobbies in which boys of the Main Line are interested. Prizes amounting to $50 will be awarded to the boys having the best exhibits.

Henry L. Reinhold, Jr., chairman of the publicity committee, is arranging a poster contest for boys and girls of senior high school age. If satisfactory, the winning poster will be used as the official Boys' Week banner. The requirement in this campaign is that the posters must be of two colors only, in addition to the background.

Prizes in this contest will be $10, $5 and $2.50 in gold.

Edward W. Bok Carillon Will Sound Peace Note

The dream of Edward W. Bok, Merion philanthropist and man of letters, will become a reality on December 2 when a carillon, medieval Europe's warning of flood and war, will sound a note of peace at Mountain Lake, Florida. Anton Brees, internationally known carillonneur, will broadcast the initial symphony from 61 bells which Mr. Bok has had placed in a 205-foot marble tower as a memorial to his parents and the American people when came opportunity of wealth and fame for the donor of the famous peace prize, the annual Bok award.

200 to Seek Team Place

The first call for candidates for the Junior High basketball team will be given next week. Over two hundred boys are expected to go out for the team. There are no letter men left from last year's squad, and Coach Fowler will have to depend on developing green material as last year. The schedule for the basketball season will be drawn up at a meeting of the Suburban Junior High School representatives sometime this week at Lower Merion.

Junior High News

The Junior High School Harmonica Band played for the Rotary Club of Ardmore at their annual fathers' and sons' banquet held at the Brookline Square Club last Thursday evening. Eight numbers and three solos were given. Everyone present enjoyed the playing of the new band, which is in its first year at the Junior High School.

The Junior High School choir sang a series of numbers, including two solos by Bernard Mellor, at the Ardmore Woman's Club meeting on Ardmore avenue, last Friday evening. Miss Mary Collins, who trains the choir, led the singing.

Miss Edith Wilson's home room presented the weekly program at the assembly Tuesday morning. The entertainment was an arrangement of Pyramus and Thisbe taken from Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream. William Ferguson and David Quick had the leading roles.

Two Cancel on Junior High

The football season is over at the Junior High School. Coach Suloff did some fine work with the boys in their first year at football, and the results were evident in the final games of the season. Glen-Nor and Radnor cancelled their games with the Junior High at the last moment. The team won games from Upper Darby J. H. and Chester J. H. and lost to Haverford J. H. and West Chester J. H.

New Coach at Haverford

W. J. McAvoy, new coach of the Haverford College basketball team, already has his men undergoing stiff practice sessions for the coming season.

The new coach graduated from Lafayette in 1908, after starring on the basketball team. Since then he has coached thirteen years at the University of Delaware, two at Drexel, one at Lafayette and for the last three seasons tutored the University of Vermont quintet. At Vermont McAvoy developed teams which won the Green Mountain Conference championship twice.

Junior High Booters Win Twice, Remain Undefeated

The Junior High School soccer team completed an undefeated season last week by winning the two final games of the season. The first game, played on Monday afternoon, was a decided victory over Friends' Select of Philadelphia, 3 to 0.

The final game was decided only in the closing moments of an extra period when Carl Moore, the little red-headed substitute, shot the ball through the net for the winning margin. The final score was 2 to 1.

Coaches Perkins and Mattis have the honor of coaching green material into the first undefeated team ever representing the Junior High School, other than track, in a hard schedule of ten games.

GAME EN'S IN TIE

started a forward passing attack which netted them five first downs and kept the defenders in hot water for the rest of the game.

Radnor Threatens Goal.

Radnor threatened the Lower Merion goal line twice in these last five minutes, and once would have scored a touchdown had not Scott made a beautiful flying tackle from behind as one of the Wayne backfield men sped toward the goal with no one else near him. Hansell, the Lockwood's place late in this quarter, intercepted one of Lentz's passes on the twenty-yard line a couple of plays before the final whistle.

Residents of the Main Line who feel a personal interest in the activities of the high schools at Lower Merion and Radnor have every reason to feel proud of the wonderful exhibition of football that was played on the field at Wayne last Saturday. This, the twenty-ninth annual meeting between the teams of these two schools, was the hardest fought and cleanest played of any in our memory. Not one attempt at dirty work by any member of either team, no talking back and forth across the line of scrimmage with an attempt to "get the other fellow's goat"—just straight, hard, clean fight.

Teams Well Matched.

Looking back over the game, it is a pleasure to remember how each and every boy gave his best for his team and his school, how extra effort was put into each plunge and tackle to prevent the gain or loss of an extra inch. The two teams were so evenly matched in scoring possibilities that to let up for one second would probably have meant defeat for either side.

The work of a few individuals stands out in the minds of the many thousands who witnessed the game, in spite of the fact that every one of the boys in the game that day did his part well. Of these, Peters, Lentz, Fox, Ernie Mandes, Lockwood, O'Dorisio and Scott were perhaps the most conspicuous. Scott and Lentz backed up the line like veteran college players. Lockwood was a star on defense at the end position.

Punters in Limelight

The line plunging of O'Dorisio for Radnor was exceptionally good. The punting of Fox for Radnor and of Peters for Lower Merion averaged about fifty yards for the game. Never have we seen anywhere such consistent punting as these two boys put up during the entire game.

The work of Ernie Mandes and Edward "Tip" Peters on running plays and passes was outstanding. Ernie was the threat which enabled "Tip" to break through the line and around end for several long gains of from five to fifteen yards. And Ernie mixed his plays well and took the ball himself in any direction, sometimes straight through the center of the line or on straight tackle bucks, and made the necessary yardage for a first down.

Captain Plays Last Game.

Captain Bob Elmore, playing his last football game for his high school, was an element to be reckoned with in this final game with Radnor. His presence in the game pepped his team up wonderfully, and upon his entrance the team started their drive for the Radnor goal.

Lower Merion completed three out of four passes, and should have thrown many more. Radnor failed in her passing attack up until the final moments of the last quarter, and time after time had her passes grounded. The first downs were about even during the first half, three for Lower Merion and two for Radnor, and in the final half Lower Merion was ahead 11 first downs to 0 when Radnor started her forward passing offensive and made five in a row. Lower Merion showed plainly that she had the stronger team, but Radnor's extra alertness and inspired play held her opponents to a scoreless tie. Fourteen first downs for Lower Merion and seven for Radnor, but the final score is what counts.

The lineup follows:
Lower Merion Radnor

Scott, left guard Henning
Faulk, center Kavanagh

Scouts Start Annual Trip To Camp Delmont

Rain, snow or clear, warm or cold, Ardmore Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, will spend today, Saturday and Sunday at Camp Delmont on their ninth annual Thanksgiving company trip. On the past eight occasions every known variety of weather has been experienced, but the scouts have always enjoyed themselves.

The program will include obtaining a collection of plaster of paris casts of wild animal tracks, night signalling and night games, astronomy, cooking tests, camp fire meeting and special religious services on Sunday morning. Later next month a visit will be made to the Haverford College observatory to study astronomy.

A bulletin has been sent to all members of Ardmore No. 1, out-

BICYCLES ON THE TRAVELED HIGHWAY

Many Collisions Reported With Death and Serious Injury the Toll.

Figures obtained by the Keystone Automobile Club from the Pennsylvania Department of Highways show that almost invariably collisions between automobiles and bicycles result in injury to the bicycle rider.

In the first nine months of this year 134 bicycle-automobile collisions were reported. Five fatalities and 126 casualties resulted, leaving only three accidents in which the bicycle rider escaped unscathed. Fifty per cent. of the victims were boys and girls between the ages of 5 and 14, and 80 per cent. of the accidents occurred at street and road intersections.

"There is a lesson for parents in these figures," says a statement by Joseph R. Murphy, superintendent of the Ardmore office. "While the total of bicycle accidents is only seven-tenths of 1 per cent. of the total number of accidents reported, the fact that virtually every accident results in injury should impress upon parents the importance of instilling caution into sons and daughters who are addicted to 'bikes.'"

"There is no disposition on our part to 'take the joy out of life,' and while we fully appreciate the pleasures of bicycling, we nevertheless feel that safety comes first and we are convinced from observation that no child is safe riding a bicycle on a busy street or highway."

Choice Reading in December Books

The rush of the Christmas festivities will soon be on in every household, and unless readers keep a sharp lookout they will drop behind in their reading. The list of new books is not long this month but there are many included that no one can afford to miss. Well known and favorite authors are represented, writing true to style, as Locke in his "Joshua's Vision," and John Erskine in his "Penelope's Man," which is the story of Odysseus wending his way home to Troy, told with Erskine's talent for sparkling wit. W. E. Woodward continues treating heroes as men, and Grant now comes in for his turn to be "debunked." "The Father," by Katherine Brown, known as the $25,000 novel, which amount it was awarded by the John Day Company, should not be overlooked. Robinson's "Sonnets," and Newton's "Book Collecting Game" will delight the discriminating.

The list follows:

Non-Fiction.

"Best Plays of 1927 and 1928," by Burns-Mantle.

"Life and Times of Pieter Stuyvesant," by Hendrick Van Loon.

"Sceptical Essays," by Bertrand Russell.

"Best Short Stories of 1928," edited by Edward O'Brien.

"Meet General Grant," by W. E. Woodward.

"Best Short Stories of 1928," edited by Blanche C. Williams.

"Sonnets," by E. A. Robinson.

"This Book Collecting Game," by A. Edward Newton.

Fiction.

"Marsh Fire," by Mathilde Farnham.

"Strange Fugitive," by Morley Callaghan.

"Wrist Mark," by J. S. Fletcher.

"Lady of Stainless Raiment," by Eiker.

"A Brood of Ducklings," by Frank Swinnerton.

lining equipment that must be carried by each scout. The pack will include two blankets, tent, raincoat, winter clothing and change of garments. The personal and cooking utensils required are also set forth.

Scouts have been asked not to make the trip unless they are in excellent physical condition, and they have been warned to make certain that all food is properly prepared before it is eaten.

A. C. Conner, scoutmaster, is enthusiastic about the zest the boys have shown for the trip. During the last eight camping parties not a scout has been ill or injured. Precautions will be taken to keep this record intact.

Advancing Communities.

If a business is going to advance, the heads and managers of that business find it necessary to keep studying the conditions in that line of trade. They are constantly improving their methods, to conform to the best modern practice.

If we want our communities to advance, they are under the same necessity. They have to keep studying the most modern ideas of municipal and business development. And as the voters and citizens are the managers of their own civic affairs, it is not enough for a few municipal officials or leading people to study such progressive ideas, but a large proportion of the people must be thoroughly informed about the essentials of community, progress, and be ready to co-operate with new movements.

VALLEY Forge SITE FOR U. OF P. LAUDED

Senator Pepper Discusses Project Before Boston University Club.

The 250 delegates of the University of Pennsylvania Associated Clubs unanimously accepted the report of a special committee urging immediate and vigorous investigation of a proposal to remove the university from its present West Philadelphia location to a less congested locality, presumably historic Valley Forge.

About 80 of the 88 clubs were represented and there was much enthusiasm when E. Wallace Chadwick, chairman of the committee, announced that sufficient land for a new location at Valley Forge had been offered the university by the president of the Alumni Association.

Former U. S. Senator George Wharton Pepper, who was toastmaster at the dinner, said the alumni of the university are enthusiastically in favor of the proposition to transfer the college to the land which has been donated by Henry Woolman.

Dr. Josiah H. Penniman, president of the University of Pennsylvania, and A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard, delivered addresses to the delegates and both speakers deplored the present-day cynicism of referring to college education as a handicap.

The Valley Forge land includes 178 acres, nearly 100 more than the institution's tract. Advocates of the change pointed out at the meeting that, at Valley Forge, the university "would have opportunity for the first time to express the priceless associations surrounding its origin and early history."

It would be particularly fitting, said one speaker, to place the great university, founded by Benjamin Franklin, on the soil of Valley Forge with the headquarters of one of Washington's staff generals on the very campus.

E. Wallace Chadwick, chairman of the Valley Forge proposition committee, presided at the discussion. He urged the question of adopting the new site be investigated vigorously and be made the subject of a full report on or before April 1, 1929. He declared a quick decision is becoming increasingly vital, because of the soaring prices of West Philadelphia real estate and the imperative need of enlarging the university's facilities.

At the Theater

Rich in romance and action, with John Barrymore giving the finest performance of his illustrious career, "Tempest," a spectacular picture having as its background imperial and revolutionary Russia, plays Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Narberth Theater. Judging from the reception accorded Barrymore's new film elsewhere, it will challenge all attendance and popularity records at the Narberth movie house.

"Tempest" is crammed with action, not to mention plenty of humor, from the opening of the story, when the star is a peasant officer plunged into the gay life of pre-war Russia, to the final scenes, when he rescues a princess, his sweetheart, from blood-thirsty hordes and escapes with her to a new life of happiness.

The story is original, the direction by Sam Taylor nothing short of brilliant, and the work of the large supporting cast exceptional. Lavish settings and marvelous photography have their share in making Barrymore's vehicle a 100 per cent. example of screen entertainment.

Those who like romance will revel in the love scenes played by the star and his beautiful leading lady, Camilla Horn, a blonde, who makes her American debut in "Tempest." Previously she was a European star, and her convincing portrayal of the princess opposite Barrymore stamps her as one of the year's outstanding finds.

Barrymore himself never had a more powerful role than the one in "Tempest." As peasant soldier, dashing officer, lover, prisoner and revolutionary he imbues his characterization with the fire and sincerity of his unrivaled histrionic ability.

The South of old, with its charming gallantry and beautiful women, is colorfully transported to the screen in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the stupendous Universal-Pollard production which will open at the Narberth Theater next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is almost possible to inhale the sweet scent of the magnolias and hear the soft voices of the crooning darkies at the hour of dusk, so truthfully does the picture mirror the old South. Harry Pollard's superb direction is reflected in every foot of this great screen epic. The all-star cast includes such names as Margarita Fischer, Arthur Edmund Carew, John Roche, Gertrude Astor, Lucien Littlefield, George Siegmann, Mona Ray, Virginia Grey.
